

Business Conditions

a review by the
Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago

Index for the year 1970

	Month	Pages
Agriculture and farm finance
Agriculture—Strong in 1969, excess capacity continued.....	January	10-16
Farm equipment prospects.....	June	2-4
Farm finance in a period of high interest rates.....	March	12-16
Farm mortgages
The impact of tight credit.....	February	11-15
Food prices level off.....	October	7-11
New farm law
A step toward the marketplace.....	December	2-8
Banking, credit, and monetary policy
Bankers liberation
Equal opportunity in the money market.....	October	2-6
The Federal Reserve System
Vital and viable in the Seventies.....	December	9-15
Housing, production, and finance.....	March	5-11
Needed, adaptable home mortgages.....	April	13-16
The one-bank holding company
History, issues, and pending legislation.....	July	2-16
Tight credit and the banks
1966 and 1969 compared.....	May	4-11

	Month	Pages
Economic conditions, general
Consumption trails rising incomes . . . . .	August	2-7
Models as economic tools . . . . .	November	9-15
More working wives, fewer children . . . . .	August	7-12
The 1960s—lessons for the 1970s . . . . .	January	2-10
Paying for pollution control . . . . .	October	12-15
Recovery in corporate profits . . . . .	November	2-8
The trend of business . . . . .	February	2-5
The trend of business . . . . .	March	2-5
The trend of business
Continued strength in capital goods . . . . .	April	2-9
The trend of business
Impact of the truck strikes . . . . .	May	2-3
The trend of business
Inventory growth ahead . . . . .	September	2-7
International economic developments
The EEC and U. S. agriculture . . . . .	February	6-10
Foreign trade—the uneasy surplus . . . . .	April	10-13
Measuring the U. S. Balance of Payments . . . . .	June	10-16
Perspective on the Seaway . . . . .	June	5-10
U. S. trade—pressures for restriction . . . . .	September	7-12

